INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I.(a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
- (b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)
- (c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".
- II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.Cv.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
 United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here. United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.
 Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.
 Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)
- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If there are multiple nature of suit codes associated with the case, pick the nature of suit code that is most applicable. Click here for: Nature of Suit Code Descriptions.
- V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.
 Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.
 Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.
 Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
 Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
 Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.
 Multidistrict Litigation – Transfer. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407.
 Multidistrict Litigation – Direct File. (8) Check this box when a multidistrict case is filed in the same district as the Master MDL docket.
PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE IS NOT AN ORIGIN CODE 7. Origin Code 7 was used for historical records and is no longer relevant due to changes in statute.
- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553 Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.
 Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction.
 Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan
Section 1:03 - Assignment to a Management Track

- (a) The clerk of court will assign cases to tracks (a) through (d) based on the initial pleading.
- (b) In all cases not appropriate for assignment by the clerk of court to tracks (a) through (d), the plaintiff shall submit to the clerk of court and serve with the complaint on all defendants a case management track designation form specifying that the plaintiff believes the case requires Standard Management or Special Management. In the event that a defendant does not agree with the plaintiff regarding said designation, that defendant shall, with its first appearance, submit to the clerk of court and serve on the plaintiff and all other parties, a case management track designation form specifying the track to which that defendant believes the case should be assigned.
- (c) The court may, on its own initiative or upon the request of any party, change the track assignment of any case at any time.
- (d) Nothing in this Plan is intended to abrogate or limit a judicial officer's authority in any case pending before that judicial officer, to direct pretrial and trial proceedings that are more stringent than those of the Plan and that are designed to accomplish cost and delay reduction.
- (e) Nothing in this Plan is intended to supersede Local Civil Rules 40.1 and 72.1, or the procedure for random assignment of Habeas Corpus and Social Security cases referred to magistrate judges of the court.

SPECIAL MANAGEMENT CASE ASSIGNMENTS
(See §1.02 (e) Management Track Definitions of the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan)

Special Management cases will usually include that class of cases commonly referred to as "complex litigation" as that term has been used in the Manuals for Complex Litigation. The first manual was prepared in 1969 and the Manual for Complex Litigation Second, MCL 2d was prepared in 1985. This term is intended to include cases that present unusual problems and require extraordinary treatment. See §0.1 of the first manual. Cases may require special or intense management by the court due to one or more of the following factors: (1) large number of parties; (2) large number of claims or defenses; (3) complex factual issues; (4) large volume of evidence; (5) problems locating or preserving evidence; (6) extensive discovery; (7) exceptionally long time needed to prepare for disposition; (8) decision needed within an exceptionally short time; and (9) need to decide preliminary issues before final disposition. It may include two or more related cases. Complex litigation typically includes such cases as antitrust cases; cases involving a large number of parties or an unincorporated association of large membership; cases involving requests for injunctive relief affecting the operation of large business entities; patent cases; copyright and trademark cases; common disaster cases such as those arising from aircraft crashes or marine disasters; actions brought by individual stockholders; stockholder's derivative and stockholder's representative actions; class actions or potential class actions; and other civil (and criminal) cases involving unusual multiplicity or complexity of factual issues. See §0.22 of the first Manual for Complex Litigation and Manual for Complex Litigation Second, Chapter 33.

13. On or about June 7, 2017, Plaintiff suffered a Left Shoulder Sprain while at work. Said medical condition constitutes a disability pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act (“PHRA”) in that it substantially impairs one or more of Plaintiff’s major life activities, including, but not limited to, reaching, sitting, pulling, twisting, lifting, and carrying. Said medical condition also constitutes a “serious health condition” within the meaning of the Family and Medical Leave Act (“FMLA”) in that it is a physical condition that involves continuing treatment by a health care provider.

14. Shortly thereafter, Defendant, through its agents, servants, and employees, began subjecting Plaintiff to discrimination on the basis of his actual and/or perceived disability and/or record of impairment (Left Shoulder Sprain).

15. On or about June 27, 2017, Plaintiff began experiencing symptoms of Acid Reflux Disease due to the anti-inflammatory drugs his physicians prescribed him to take to treat his Left Shoulder Sprain. As a result, Plaintiff visited Defendant’s Medical Department and was seen by Margie LNU (“Margie”), Nurse, who instructed Plaintiff to leave work for the day and to see his Primary Care Physician. Immediately after said appointment and prior to leaving the workplace, Plaintiff notified Kerry Hummel (“Hummel”), Distribution Office Supervisor, of said instructions by the Medical Department and provided Hummel with documentation of the same.

16. Notwithstanding Defendant’s instructions that Plaintiff leave the workplace, on or about June 29, 2017, Defendant issued Plaintiff a disciplinary occurrence for his alleged insubordination in leaving the workplace on or about June 27, 2017. Plaintiff therefore believes that the Defendant's issuance of a disciplinary occurrence for said absence evidences Defendant's discriminatory bias toward Plaintiff based on his actual and/or perceived disability and/or record of impairment (Left Shoulder Sprain).

17. On or about August 11, 2017, Plaintiff began experiencing exacerbated symptoms of his Left Shoulder Sprain. As a result, Plaintiff visited the Emergency Department of Defendant's Workers' Compensation provider. On said date, Plaintiff was instructed not to return to work until he could be seen by the Workers' Compensation physician.

18. Again, notwithstanding the instructions of Plaintiff's medical providers, Defendant mandated that Plaintiff return to the workplace on said date to provide medical documentation from the Emergency Department.

19. In further discrimination, on or about August 14, 2017, Plaintiff informed Monique Williams ("Williams"), Office Supervisor, of the aforementioned appointment with the Workers' Compensation physician. In response thereto, Williams stated, "How many times are you gonna have your shoulder looked at," thereby evidencing her discriminatory animus toward Plaintiff based on his actual and/or perceived disability and/or record of impairment (Left Shoulder Sprain).

20. On or about August 18, 2017, Plaintiff visited Defendant's Medical Department after his appointment with an Orthopedic Physician.

21. During said appointment, Margie asked Plaintiff the name of the prescription that his Orthopedic Physician prescribed. When Plaintiff could not recall the exact name of the medication, Margie stated "I'm sick of this. This is bullshit. I'm at the point where I don't even believe you anymore,” thereby further evidencing Defendant’s discriminatory animus toward Plaintiff based on his actual and/or perceived disability and/or record of impairment.

22. Thereafter, on or about October 10, 2017, Plaintiff visited the Workers’ Compensation physician who ordered that Plaintiff receive a Magnetic Resonance Image (“MRI”) of his left shoulder and undergo further physical and/or occupational therapy. On said date, Plaintiff was also prescribed anti-inflammatory medications to treat his Left Shoulder Sprain.

23. On or about October 12, 2017, Plaintiff once again began experiencing symptoms of Acid Reflux Disease due to said anti-inflammatory medications. As a result, Plaintiff’s Workers’ Compensation physician referred Plaintiff to his Primary Care Physician, who excused Plaintiff from work from on or about October 12, 2017 until on or about October 16, 2017.

24. On or about October 13, 2017, Williams telephoned Plaintiff and instructed him to see the Workers’ Compensation physician on or about October 15, 2017. Williams further instructed Plaintiff to go home after said appointment and to return to work on or about October 16, 2017.

25. On or about October 16, 2017, Plaintiff telephoned Williams to inform her that he was still experiencing exacerbated symptoms of his Left Shoulder Sprain and to request a medical leave of absence as a reasonable accommodation for his disability.

26. Notwithstanding said request for a reasonable accommodation, Defendant again mandated that Plaintiff hand-deliver the medical documentation from his physicians. Upon arriving at the workplace, Plaintiff visited the Medical Department and provided the Defendant with all medical documentation, including, but not limited to, said note from his Primary Care

Physician instructing Plaintiff to remain out of work from on or about October 12, 2017 until on or about October 16, 2017.

27. Later on said date, Defendant abruptly terminated the employment of Plaintiff allegedly because of the “unauthorized absence” the day prior. Curiously, Williams instructed Plaintiff not to return to the workplace after his appointment the day prior.

28. Significantly, at no time did Defendant offer Plaintiff leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act (“FMLA”), thereby interfering with Plaintiff’s ability to exercise his rights.

29. Plaintiff believes and avers that the Defendant’s articulated reason for his termination is pretextual and that he was actually terminated based on his actual and/or perceived disabilities and/or record of impairment (Left Shoulder Strain) and/or in retaliation for requesting a reasonable accommodation for his disabilities and/or filing or expressing his intent to file a claim for workers’ compensation benefits.
